Members cannot participate if they have, or could be perceived as having, a direct or indirect interest in the outcome. They also cannot participate if they are nationals of any of the countries involved, or come from or represent the same country as the Appellant or Appellants, or if they are commercially involved with the Appellant.
 - c) Ineligible members shall not participate in the appeal proceedings. Furthermore, ineligible members will not be permitted to be present or take part in the deliberations involving the issues for which they have been declared ineligible. However, he may, if he prefers, elect to represent his country or be entered in the Olympic Games by his new NOC if one exists. This particular choice may be made only once.
4. Furthermore, in all cases in which a competitor would be eligible to participate in the Olympic Games, either by representing another country than his or by having the choice as to the country which such competitor intends to represent, the IOC Executive Board may take all decisions of a general or individual nature with regard to issues resulting from nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of any competitor, including the duration of any waiting period.

For all these technical arrangements, the OCOG must consult the relevant IFs. The holding of all events in each sport is placed under the direct responsibility of the IF concerned.
2. The OCOG must ensure that the various sports included in the programme of the Olympic Games are treated and integrated equitably.
3. As to the schedule and daily timetable of events, the final decision lies with the IOC Executive Board.
4. After consultation with each IF, the IOC Executive Board determines the number and selection of competitors for doping tests and all other anti-doping measures during the period of the Olympic Games.
