

- Prize money

For the CUPRA FIP FINALS main draw, a minimum total amount of 12000€ will be distributed.

- Qualifying

The main draw will be made of 64 pairs, to participate there will be 3 options:

1. To win a FIP STAR category tournament.
2. To get the place for the total sum of points of the CUPRA FIP TOUR tournaments during the 2020.
3. FIP member federations may send a pair if a player from that nation, with a license issued by that federation, plays a minimum of 3 tournaments *, regardless of category.

In the event that a federation, due to the situation of COVID19, cannot organize 3 tournaments and its players have difficulties in traveling and competing in the CUPRA FIP TOUR, the FIP could grant that Federation to choose a pair as long as a player, with a license issued by that national federation, play only 1 tournament.*

This will help players from all over the world, regardless of their level, stay in a difficult year motivated with new goals. In addition, the relationship between players and federations will be stronger, encouraging the participation and organization of international events in different countries.

The dates scheduled for the CUPRA FIP FINALS 2020 will be the week of December 7 al 13, 2020. Being the last tournament of the year.

Over the next few weeks, we will announce the different tournaments of the CUPRA FIP TOUR 2020 so the venue for the final stage.

The Official Ranking will remain frozen all the year and it will be in January 2021 when all the points of the different tournaments played in 2020 will be updated.
