EUROPEAN GAMES: MEDIA ACCREDITATION PROCESS HAS OFFICIALLY OPENED

The media accreditation process for the European Games in Krakow-Malopolska (Poland, 21 June-2 July) has officially opened. Padel will also make its debut for the first time: the tournament, a direct emanation of the European Olympic Committees, will take place from 21 to 25 June.

On the official website, at the link <https://www.european-games.org/institutional/media/>, there are four application forms for different categories: journalists (press, websites, radio commentators), photographers, TV without broadcasting rights (ENR), documentaries (also ENR - without broadcasting rights).

The form is valid for Polish and non-European journalists, but also for reporters and photographers from European federations. Journalists from EOC countries can apply for accreditation through their NOC.

On the same webpage where you can also find the accreditation request forms, you will find instructions on how to fill out the form and information on the selection process. Applications must be received no later than May 15th.

For information and requirements, please contact the press office: media@ie2023.pl

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
