FIP RISE GOTHENBURG, ROCAFORT AND VASQUEZ WIN AT HOME

The surname doesn't hide the origins, but Simon Vasquez is 100% Swedish. And in Gothenburg, with Cayetano Rocafort (another padel player who is at home in Sweden), Vasquez won the FIP Rise. In the final match, Rocafort and Vasquez - who were the tournament's third seed - defeated in three sets (6-2 3-6 6-2) the second seed on the main draw, Spaniards José Carlos Gaspar and Miguel Gonzalez. "Winning here, in Sweden, at home, was a fantastic feeling - wrote Vasquez on his Instagram profile -. We risked in many situations but, with our fighting spirit and will, we lifted the trophy".

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
