FIP STAR and FIP RISE Il Bosco A Spanish and a German triumph

Two trophies in one month, with two different partners. After Bordeaux, Fran Ramirez Navas also won the FIP STAR in Il Bosco, Egypt. If in France, Ramirez Navas won the title with another Spaniard, Mario Huete Hernandez, this time he shared the half court with Inigo Jofre. Number five seed on the draw, they defeated José Carlos Gaspar and Miguel Gonzalez in three sets in the final. After losing the first set on a tiebreak, they then gave up only four games (6-1 6-3) in the next two to their opponents, the number 6 seed.

In the women's final, Germany's Victoria Kurz and Denise Hofer clearly won the FIP RISE final, defeating 6-2 6-0 the tournament's big surprise, the Egyptian pair of Laila El Nimr and Yasmeen Ebada, who had beaten in the semifinal the other Egyptian Iman Metwally and Spain's Sara Ruiz Soto, big favourites before the start of the tournament.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
