Chingotto-Navarro, Water Cup Challenge after magical tricks on Pietrangeli

First they thrilled the Nicola Pietrangeli - packed with fans who ran to admire them - with their plays, which granted them victory and qualification to the BNL Italy Major Premier Padel Round of 16. Then they challenged each other in the media room in the Water Cup Challenge, a popular social network challenge, with the same desire and will to win that they show on the court. And eliciting hilarity from the reporters who arrived to hear their quotes after their victory (6-2 6-2) over Italians Cattaneo and Di Giovanni. Fede Chingotto and Paquito Navarro immediately took the stage at Foro Italico, with an amusing diversion in an informal and very relaxed atmosphere at the end of their match. For the record, the challenge to the last drop - not of blood, of course, but of water - was won by the Argentine Chingotto, to the disappointment of the Spaniard Paquito Navarro, who overflowed his glass first and wet the table with the microphones, however carefully protected by a cloth.

Maybe - who knows - after the Round of 16 match against Spaniards Munoz-Ramirez, in the event of a win and new press conference, he may ask his partner for a rematch.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
