FIP RISE Ceuta, masterpiece of Augsburger and Castillo

The nickname, which he himself mentioned on his Instagram profile, is all too easy: "El Chessburger". Leandro Augsburger, paired with Pablo Castillo Valverde, took the title in the FIP RISE in Ceuta. The Argentine and the Spaniard, the number 1 seed, beat 3-6 7-6 6-2 in the final the Portuguese brothers Nuno and Miguel Deus, who then failed in the deciding round to win the double after Houten's victory.

"It's a pleasure to play with you by my side – Castillo's dedication to Augsburger -. I had fun and learned a lot from you these days, I hope I can do it again soon". In the women's draw, victory went to Natividad Lopez Diaz and Natalia Sanza Garcia (4), who defeated 3-6 6-4 6-1 Claudia Escacena Montero and Cayetana Sanchez in the final.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
