

August 2, 2024

Weebora is the new Official Travel Partner of the International Padel Federation

Weebora, the travel padel brand offering the best padel experiences in a variety of options, officially joins the FIP family as an Official Travel Partner. Weebora will provide padel players and fans worldwide with 'dedicated' travel packages for tournaments organized by the International Padel Federation. The FIP has chosen to rely on the leading online travel platform for padel enthusiasts, capable of creating a true 'circuit within a circuit' with exclusive packages: from stays at the best padel resorts, to tickets and accommodation for FIP tournaments around the world, to packages at the most sought-after academies for those looking to improve their technical skills.

Weebora offers a comprehensive integration of sport, travel, and leisure, targeting the broad global community of padel players and fans. The FIP's partnership with Weebora aims to strengthen the growth of the sport worldwide, ensuring that players and those wishing to enjoy padel have the best possible experience without having to worry about the traditional organizational issues of traveling for a vacation to any destination in the world. At the same time, the FIP is confident that partnerships like the one with Weebora will contribute significantly to the ongoing effort to spread padel globally, which remains a primary goal for this International Federation and its affiliated national federations.

FIP President Luigi Carraro stated: "We are delighted to welcome Weebora to the great FIP family as our Official Travel Partner. The rapid and relentless expansion of padel worldwide, both at the amateur and professional levels, needed a high-quality and proven reliable 'compass' for organizing travel for international tours organized by the FIP or simply to cater to the passion for padel and the opportunity to play on courts around the world".

Fabio Zecchini, founder and CEO of Weebora, said: "We are extremely grateful for the trust placed in us by Luigi Carraro and the FIP. This partnership adds solidity and official status to our project and allows the entire padel industry to grow at a more sustainable pace, making the

Global Sponsor

Official court

Official turf

Official Travel Partner

world of tournaments, academies, and padel-themed vacations more accessible to everyone. We believe that travel is an ideal catalyst for this sport, promoting its emergence in new countries and among new player segments worldwide. Our goal is to enable an increasingly international audience to access professional tournaments by creating travel packages dedicated to padel not only for enthusiasts of the sport but also for their family and friends, providing a complete travel experience in top destinations”.

Press contacts:
International Padel Federation:
press@padelfip.com

Global Sponsor

Official court

Official turf

Official Travel Partner

