FIP World Padel Championships South American Female Qualifiers, day 5 on Sunday. In Viña del Mar two places for the final stage

The FIP World Padel Championships South American Female Qualifiers have entered the decisive phase. In Viña del Mar (Chile), after the first four rounds, there are three teams tied on points: Uruguay, who took the court only once on Saturday, beating Ecuador, before observing a rest in day 4, Chile and Ecuador itself, with the hosts taking the second and third wins in the ties against Venezuela and Paraguay.

The Ecuadorian national team, however, will not take the court on Sunday in the decisive round, having already played all four of its matches. The direct clash between Uruguay and Chile, which is worth first place, and that between Paraguay and Venezuela, will close the weekend.

Day 1: Uruguay-Paraguay 3-0, Chile-Ecuador 2-1

Day 2: Uruguay-Venezuela 2-1, Paraguay-Ecuador 1-2

Day 3: Uruguay-Ecuador 2-1, Chile-Venezuela 2-1

Day 4: Chile-Paraguay 3-0, Ecuador-Venezuela 2-1

Standings: Uruguay, Chile and Ecuador 6, Venezuela and Paraguay 3

Day 5 (Sunday): Uruguay-Chile, Paraguay-Venezuela
