

September 17, 2024

FIP Rise La Serena, first career title for Gayone and Guevara

Starting as the number 7 seed on the draw, Argentines Manuel Gayone and Axel William Guevara claimed the title in the FIP Rise in La Serena, Chile, the first on the CUPRA FIP Tour in their careers. The final was a battle, with Gayone and Guevara managing to win in three sets (6-2 4-6 7-5) over Tomas Luco and Pablo Nicolas Egea, the number 3 seed. The La Serena trophy allows Gayone to move up 61 places in the FIP rankings (he is now number 233) and Guevara to move up 53 (he is now number 221).

“A tournament we will never forget – the winners’ words –. It’s the result of all the work we do every day. Thanks to all our team and our families who encourage us to be better and better”.

Press contacts:
International Padel Federation:
press@padelfip.com