FIP Rise Catamarca, the CUPRA FIP Tour at Tapia's house

Catamarca, for those who love padel, is a special place. It is where Agustin Tapia, the number 2 in the FIP ranking and one of the most spectacular players in the world, was born in 1999. This weekend, the Las Rejas Padel will host a stage of the CUPRA FIP Tour, a FIP Rise with a 32-pair men's draw. The number 1 seed will be Argentine Pablo Nicolas Egea (number 194 in the FIP ranking) and Tomas Luco (225). On the other side of the main draw will be Mauricio Rivero (205) and Francisco Britos (217). After the end of the qualifiers, the main draw matches will begin from Friday, with the finals scheduled for Sunday.
