VISA

All international participants require a visa to enter Australia for the 2026 Melbourne Padel Open. You require a Letter of Invitation citing your correct visa category, then you need to apply for a visa through Australia's Department of Home Affairs.

Step 1 | Request your Letter of Invitation

To apply for and to be approved for a visa as an invited participant, you will need a Letter of Invitation from Tennis Australia. Absolute Immigration will manage your request and you can submit it through this link.

Request your Letter of Invitation | View here

Step 2 | Check Visa Information

Visa information and requirements depend on your participant category and personal circumstances. It is important to apply for the correct visa and we have outlined your visa options here.

Visa Information | View here

Step 3 | Apply now for your visa

There are two options to apply for your visa:

- Directly with the Department of Home Affairs by creating an ImmiAccount, or
- By engaging our services to manage the visa application on your behalf.

Visa Application | View here

- All players should select "Professional Player"
- All Coaches/Trainers should select "PSTs"
- All family members should select "Direct Players' Family Member"
- Select "ITF" player Tour

Please follow the instructions and where possible through the process, note your purpose is for the Melbourne Padel Open. Should you have any issue please be in contact.

PROMOTIONAL APPEARANCES

- Players may be requested to attend tournament promotional activities.
- Requests will be reasonable and will not conflict with match commitments.

PLAYER ATTIRE

- Teams are encouraged (but not required) to wear matching outfits.
- Avoid wearing logos from competing tours or conflicting brands.
- If both teams wear similar colours, the higher-ranked team has priority.
